Ref.No.ECL/KOL/HOD/M&S/89D

Dated: 29.04.2020

Subject: Extension of lifting validity of Sale Orders under Road mode due to extension of lockdown imposed by State & Central Govt. to contain the Pandemic COVID-19.

Further in reference to Notice No. ECL/KOL/HOD/M&S/68D Date:02.04.2020 this is for kind information to all concerned consumers/customers taking coal from Eastern Coalfields Limited through Road Mode under FSA(ernwhile/thro’ linkage auction/import substitution)/e-Auctions that considering various representations from consumers for extension in validity of Sale Orders due to extension of lockdown imposed by State & Central Govt for containing the spread of pandemic COVID-19 till 03.05.2020, lifting validity of Sale Orders has been extended further.

In this regard it has been decided to extend the lifting validity of Sale Orders by number of days for which lifting is expected to be impacted/ number of days to be wasted during the period of lockdown under any Sale Order beyond the period of lock down (i.e.03.05.2020) or original validity, whichever is later. Number of days for which lifting to be impacted/ number of days wasted/ to be wasted during the lockdown shall be considered equivalent to the number of days for which lifting validity of any Sale Order is falling under the period of lock down.

With reference to the above situation, it has been decided that the validity of all the pending sale orders extended earlier may further be extended over for the number of days further impacted due to lock down, if any, i.e., from 15.04.2020 to 03.05.2020 (19 days). Therefore, the total lock down period is 24.03.2020 to 03.05.2020, i.e., 41 days.

The examples/illustrations for the same are given as under for kind reference.

In case of State Nominated Agency of West Bengal having FSA tenure with ECL till 31.03.2020, the above method shall be applied to all the valid Sale Orders in which the initial validity of 45 days mentioned on the Sale Orders falls under the lockdown period, i.e., 24.03.2020 to 03.05.2020 or beyond it. The sale orders issued between April’19 to January’20 remained valid till 31.03.2020, i.e., the tenure of the FSA and the unlifted quantities against these sale orders were also impacted during the lockdown period. Under these circumstances, the validity of these sale orders shall be extended for the days equivalent to the impacted period, i.e., 24.03.2020 to 31.03.2020 after 03.05.2020, i.e., till 11.05.2020.

Such extensions have been considered as a Special Case in light of the national crisis as mentioned above. However, all the concerned customers are earnestly requested to make all out efforts to ensure lifting of coal at the earliest.
